

A fun and easy way for kids to learn about missions.

Hello Parents,

This week, we're headed to Peru to meet a couple of determined women: Flor and Sara. Attendance for their church had dwindled to just the two of them meeting in a house. People told them they should give up on trying to grow a church, but they believed God had a plan.

In today's video, your kids will see how faith, prayer, and resolve led to a beautiful new beginning for Flor and Sara's church, and your children will have the opportunity to consider how prayer can impact their own lives.

As always, feel free to tailor the discussion questions below to your children's age, and be prepared to go deeper if they're ready. We pray this week's program is a blessing to your family.

Pre-video Discussion Questions

- What is the best part about being at church?
- How would it feel to be at church alone?

VIDEO

In today's video, we'll meet two ladies in Peru who found themselves in church all alone.

Post-video Discussion Questions

- You may have been holding a church service in your home for the past couple months because of the coronavirus—what have you enjoyed about church at home? What have you disliked about it?
- How would it feel to invite someone to come to church in your home like Flor and Sara had to do?
- What did Flor and Sara do to start growing their church group? (Prayed and invited neighbors to church)
- How can prayer help when we're in a difficult situation?
- Can you think of a Bible story when someone prayed in a difficult situation? (Moses, Samson, Daniel, Hannah, Jonah, and Jesus are some examples) How did praying help?

Prayer Points

- The Mi Peru C Seventh-day Adventist Church in Peru (Flor and Sara's church)
- Church members around the world who have no church building
- Ask kids what they would add to the prayer list

Did You Know?

- Before returning to Peru in 2019, Maranatha worked there from 2004-2006, with more than 3,000 volunteers serving over that time period.
- Over the past fifty years, one of Maranatha's most unique projects is a floating church in Peru set among the floating communities of Lake Titicaca.
