

A fun and easy way for kids to learn about missions.

Hello Parents,

This week, we go behind the scenes to see how our media team produces episodes for our television program, Maranatha Mission Stories. Your kids will get a glimpse of the entire process our crew goes through, from traveling to other countries to filming interviews to editing everything together back at our office. We hope they'll enjoy this fun look at what it takes to share mission stories with the world, and how they can share their own stories with others.

Pre-video Discussion Questions

- If you could create your own TV show, what would it be like?

VIDEO

In today's video, see how our television crew produces episodes for our program, Maranatha Mission Stories.

Post-video Discussion Questions

- Maranatha's media team travels all over the world to film Maranatha Mission Stories. What would be fun about this? What wouldn't be so great?
- Maranatha Mission Stories shares what God is doing in the world of Maranatha, but even if you don't have a TV program, how could you share what God has done with people you know?
- What is the most creative way you could tell a special story about what God has done?

Prayer Points

- Maranatha's media crew, as they continue producing more mission stories.
- Ask kids what they would add to the prayer list.

Did You Know?

- Maranatha also produces a television program in Portuguese called Maranatha Histórias de Missão.
