

A fun and easy way for kids to learn about missions.

Merry Christmas!

This week, see what Christmas was like for a group of kids that served on one of Maranatha's annual Family Projects. Instead of spending a day opening presents, these volunteers served the community of Khunti, India. Watch as they experience a different kind of holiday season on this special mission trip designed just for families.

Pre-video Discussion Questions

- What is the best Christmas gift you have ever received?
- What is your favorite Christmas memory?

VIDEO

In today's video, see how volunteers on Maranatha's Family Project experienced a different kind of Christmas in India.

Post-video Discussion Questions

- How would it feel to celebrate Christmas in another country?
- What do you think is the most important part of Christmas?
- Why does your family celebrate Christmas?
- Although there are lots of special Christmas traditions, the reason we celebrate is to remember Jesus' birth. How can we make sure that Jesus is the center of our Christmas celebration this year?

Prayer Points

- That we would remember the reason for Christmas.
- Ask kids what they would add to the prayer list.

Did You Know?

- The volunteers in the video helped to construct a 12-classroom school building at the Khunti Adventist School, where more than 1,300 students attend.
